ACCESSIBILITY FOR ONTARIANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (AODA) ACCESSIBLE EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS

CHATS is committed to providing an accessible working environment and accommodations for people with disabilities.

SCOPE: This policy applies to all current employees of CHATS including full and part-time, casual, contract, permanent, temporary employees and volunteers. This policy also applies to employees on approved leave, including short and long-term disability leave, and job applicants. This policy applies to all aspects of employment including, but not limited to recruitment, selection, training, promotion, transfers, work arrangements, compensation and benefits, and termination of employment.

PURPOSE: To comply with the Employment Standards set out within the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (AODA) Ontario Regulation 191/11.

DEFINITIONS:

Disability: is defined by the Human Rights Code as follows:

- (a) any degree of physical disability, infirmity, malformation or disfigurement that is caused by bodily injury, birth defect or illness and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes diabetes mellitus, epilepsy, a brain injury, any degree of paralysis, amputation, lack of physical co-ordination, blindness or visual impediment, deafness or hearing impediment, muteness or speech impediment, or physical reliance on a guide dog or other animal or on a wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device,
- (b) a condition of mental impairment or a developmental disability,
- (c) a learning disability, or a dysfunction in one or more of the processes involved in understanding or using symbols or spoken language,
- (d) a mental disorder
- (e) an injury or disability for which benefits were claimed or received under the insurance plan established under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, 1997.

Reasonable Accommodation: for the purpose of this procedure, is an individualized process which, to the point of undue hardship, involves the removal or alleviation of barriers that prevent an otherwise capable individual from participating equally in the workplace because of a disability. For the purpose of this document, “reasonable accommodation” and “accommodation” are used interchangeably.
